REFERRAL DIRECTORY

Services for Victims of Child Sexual Abuse and Exploitation

November | 2020

INTRODUCTION AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

This directory guide has been developed by APLE Cambodia under the project “Facilitating Access to Justice and Recovery for Child Victims of Sexual Abuse and Exploitation” supported by the Embassy of the Kingdom of Netherlands in Bangkok. It was developed to assist children affected by sexual abuse and exploitation and their families with accessing information on support and recovery services and to assist other service providers looking for referral organizations for their clients.

We would like to acknowledge and profoundly thank the Embassy of the Kingdom of Netherlands in Bangkok for their financial contribution to this project and the production of this resource, as well as the Australian Federal Police of the Australian Embassy in Phnom Penh for their financial support for printing and distribution.

It is every child’s right to have access to information, be provided with appropriate services and be protected from harm. We are at full hope that this guide will allow any child in need to find the support they require for a better future.

**In this guide we refer to children as any person under the age 18.*

Disclaimer:

This directory guide is a non-exhaustive list that incorporates services provided by NGOs operating in all provinces across Cambodia, which include psychosocial support, legal assistance, recovery, rehabilitation, reintegration, educational prospects and more.

The information contained in this directory guide has been collected from public sources through organizations’ websites and public reports. Each organization reserves the right to have different selection criteria or provision of services that may be different than stated here, according to their own internal policies and decisions.

While APLE makes reasonable efforts to compile and present accurate information in this directory guide, neither APLE nor its financial contributors take any liability or responsibility over the services provided by other organizations or for damages caused directly or indirectly by the use of the information in this directory guide. It is the responsibility of users of this directory guide to conduct the appropriate assessment before accepting services.
